Pays Fare With Chickens

Mrs. Darling Garner who lives one-half mile east of Mound Bayou wanted to send her boy to Boyle, Tuesday. According to report received in our office, she offered the ticket agent two chickens for a ticket but he refused. This didn't stop Mrs. Garner. She put the boy on the train with the chickens to give to the conductor, being careful to pick the fleas off his head so they wouldn't get on the conductor.

28 Added To Church At Shaw During Revival

The Strangers Home M. B. Church, pastored by Rev. E. L. Drew, of Shaw, recently closed a successful revival with 28 added to the church. The meeting was conducted by Rev. G. W. West of Leland. Rev. West is truly a great preacher and revivalist. Rev. Drew is one of our leading pastors of the state of Mississippi. Revival is also going on at the Second Baptist Church, Doddsville, Rev. P. S. Johnson of Leland preaching, and at the New Morning Star M. B. Church, Grapeland. Our pastor also announced that revival will start at Mt. Gaza M. B. Church, Stringtown, August 18, Rev. J. E. Latson will do the preaching. Susie Malone, Reporter

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for the kindnesses they showed me during my illness last week. May God smile upon each of you who made the way so I would not suffer. Sincerely yours, Mrs. E. N. Savannah.
